Boost Employee Engagement with Our Integrated Learning Management Platform

Get integrated learning management that empowers your employees with ongoing training and reinforces compliance procedures and policies.

Struggling to keep employees up to date on changing company policies? An integrated learning management system can help you customize and manage employee training across teams.

Empower your team members proactively with well-structured, relevant and consistent training programs to accelerate employee engagement. Build a workplace that is scalable, flexible and open to change.

Our all-in-one learning management system comes with built-in phishing training. By creating a centralized place for hosting, it lets you build and add your own training courses to manage engagement and completions.

Why Employee Training Is Essential

- ✓ 59% of employees say they've had no workplace training and have developed skills on their own.
- ✓ 85% of breaches involved the human element in 2020.
- ✓ 69% of employees are more likely to stay with an organization that has great onboarding, for at least three years.
- ✓ New hires that experience great onboarding are 18 times more committed to their organization.

CENTRALIZED TRAINING PLATFORM

Whether it's HR or IT, our learning management platform can be your one-stop solution to centralize organizational training programs. Create, upload and automate training tracks. It even includes phishing training that is available in eight languages.

CAPTURE EXPERTISE

Many organizations lose key training material when talent moves on. Your organization can avoid this by giving every team one place to house it all.

AUTOMATE REMINDERS

Enjoy real-time, automated email reminders to take or complete specific trainings within specific timeframes.

TRACK ENGAGEMENT

Whether you need to ensure everyone in your organization takes a mandatory compliance training or want to optimize existing training tracks, engagement metrics give you the right data to generate actionable insights.
